DERBY STREET

NICK HOWSON

MEDIA RELEASE

Exhibition Dates: 9 – 28 June 2015
35 Derby Street Collingwood VIC 3066
Open 7 days 10am to 6pm

Nick Howson's distinctive oil paintings combine a naivety of style with sophisticated colour harmonies, reminiscent of the Swiss-German painter Paul Klee. Howson presents the subject through a softened, hazy lense, a difficult technique he has honed through his years of art practise. Through varied subject matter, from landscapes, birds, urban streetscapes to allegorical figures, each work tells a story, built up through the patchwork of colour and form which are a hallmark of Howson's work.

Nick Howson has completed commissions for the Australian Open Tennis Poster, Melbourne; a mural for the National Gallery of Australia restaurant, Canberra; a mural for the Prahran Market, Melbourne and a significant mural at the Richmond Railway Station, Melbourne. His work is represented in collections around Australia including Art Bank, Sydney; the Melbourne City of Whitehorse Art Collection, VIC; Crown Casino, Melbourne; the Gold Coast Art Gallery, QLD; the Horsham Regional Art Gallery, VIC; Parliament House, Canberra and the Melbourne Tullamarine Airport, Melbourne.

Exhibition is current until 28 June 2015
