PETER NEILSON

Paintings

MEDIA RELEASE

Exhibition Dates: 27 October – 15 November 2015
35 Derby Street Collingwood VIC 3066
Open 7 days 10am to 6pm

Peter Neilson's enigmatic paintings utilise shifting perspectives and spatial ambiguity to construct filmic scenes both beguiling and mysterious. Neilson masterfully suspends time and space, drawing the viewer in through darkened doorways and shadowy office corridors to rain slicked streets reflecting bright city lights. Glamorous women and sharp-suited men populate dramatic landscapes of cryptic, interlacing stories; intense scenarios which resonate like dreams half-remembered.

Paintings presents a series of these enthralling narratives as well as single figure oils depicting semi-observed faces, often sinister and always captivating. Peter Neilson renders a reality so intriguing that we dare not look away, characters almost recognizable yet just out of clear sight; intuited truths that lie just beyond conscious grasp.

Paintings is current until 15 November 2015
